DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This frame house is almost identical in design to 109 Oakley Street, and was very likely built by the same architect or contractor. It is basically a rectangular block with a hip roof and two hip dormers on the front. The cornice is ornamented with modillions. There are three bays on the front, and in front of the door is a flat roofed portico supported by fluted ionic columns. The elegant doorway has a lunette shaped fanlight above with radials and flanking sidelights. There is a chimney on the north and south sides of the house. The house is symmetrical with the exception of a one story screened porch on the south side.
